

Herald Cameramen Tell Their Story

AID FROM AIR—Ice-blocked lighthouse keeper at Waremunde on the Baltic Sea is relieved with supplies flown by airplane. Arctic conditions throughout Europe have caused much suffering and many deaths. International Newsreel

WORLD PEACE—Representatives of Russia, Rumania, Poland and the Baltic States sign the Kellogg Pact at Moscow, Russia, bringing nearer the accomplishment of world peace. International Newsreel

FAWN DOWN, BOOM—Three British officers were hurt when this Handley-Page made a forced landing at Harrow hill near London, England. International Newsreel

VISITING— Sylvia, left, and Monica Salisbury, twin daughters of famous English portrait painter, arrive in New York to spend two months seeing America. International Newsreel

COULDN'T HUNT—H.R. H. the Prince of Wales misses one of his few chances to hunt at Melton Nowbury, England, since his duties have become heavy, not because he wasn't there, but the weather was entirely too cold. International Newsreel

WHO'S IT?—Why didn't you know the young man? Allow me. Jackie Coogan, screen juvenile, is home again from an extended European visit. He doesn't look much like the familiar Jackie you used to know. International Newsreel

JUNIOR SPEEDSTERS—Some of the world's fastest boats were seen in action during the Junior Regatta at Miami Beach, Fla. International Newsreel

WHEN?—Will Lindy and Miss Morrow marry at Englewood, N. J., or in quaint Cuernavaca, above, at the Morrow estate. The troops shown are local constabulary. International Newsreel

TO THE BENCH—Private poll of the Judiciary Committee of the Senate indicates approval of Irvine L. Lenroot of Wisconsin, as judge of the United States Court of Customs Appeals. International Newsreel

DEATH NEARS—Weakened by the long illness which has ravaged his strength, little hope is held for the recovery of Marshal Foch, famous Allied army commander, at his home near Paris. International Newsreel

GENERAL'S SALUTE—The color guard greets General Charles P. Summerall, Chief of Staff, with full honors following his elevation to the rank of General, the sixth in the history of the Army. His predecessors were Generals Washington, Grant, Sheridan, Sherman and Pershing. International Newsreel

ALL ALONE—Villy Holer Tobiasen, aged 9, from Copenhagen, greets America enthusiastically after his lone some trip from the old world to join his mother in Chicago. International Newsreel

VOYAGE INTERRUPTED—Two hundred passengers ice-bound aboard the "C. C. Tietgen" two miles from Copenhagen, Denmark, were fed with food carried from the mainland on sleds. Continued cold in Europe has frozen all water communication and curtailed traffic. International Newsreel